What’s Happening Week 9?

Just Do It: Inside the Resume
Participate in the last Humanities Career Panel Series event of Fall 2020: “Inside the Resume”! The event will take place on Tuesday, December 1st from 4-5PM PST. At this Zoom panel event students will learn how to translate and write experiences and skills developed from their humanities and social science degrees onto resumes. Additionally, students will gain knowledge of a variety of career industries that are directly applicable to their backgrounds in humanities and social sciences. Student attendees who attend the event and complete a short two question survey are eligible to win a $75 Amazon gift card! To RSVP and view speaker bios visit this website.

Little Bruin Wishes
Interested in making little Bruin wishes come true this holiday season? The Bruin Resource Center Students with Dependents Program is kicking off their Little Bruin Wishes campaign to raise funds for low-income parenting students to fulfill their children’s holiday wish-lists. CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors and Student Staff, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The UCLA Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is dedicated to supporting the mental health and wellbeing of students in their academic journeys at UCLA. Their services include individual counseling, group therapy, and 24/7 crisis support. During virtual instruction, CAPS continues to support students by providing all services through telehealth and remote means. All registered UCLA students are eligible for a same-day clinical consultation and mental health care regardless of insurance plan or current residence. Visit the CAPS website to learn more about how to access their services. Especially now, your mental health is paramount to success as a UCLA student, and CAPS is here to support you!
