The Connection
Fall 2020 | Week 1
For Undergraduates in the UCLA College of Letters and Science

What’s Happening Week 1?

Stay Connected with College Academic Counseling
Although Fall 2020 is remote, College Academic Counseling (CAC) remains committed to providing informative and accessible academic support services for UCLA students virtually. UCLA students can stay connected with CAC staff through: MyUCLA Message Center, Virtual Drop-in Advising, and 30-minute Zoom appointments with College Counselors and College Academic Mentors. This fall quarter, CAC remains open Monday–Friday 9am–4:30pm. Click here to learn more about academic advising in the College.

International Development Studies and Global Studies Info Sessions
Are you interested in learning more about the International Development Studies (IDS) or Global Studies (GS) major? Attend an info session to learn more about each major! The International Development Studies Info Session is scheduled Tuesday, October 6th at 4:30pm–5:00pm. The Global Studies Info Session is scheduled Wednesday, October 7th at 4:30pm–5:00pm. Major applications will be available online in November. Applications are ONLY accepted during the fall. Sophomores and Juniors are eligible to apply. For additional information please visit the International Institute Academic Programs website at: www.international.ucla.edu/academics/undergraduate.

Important Resources and Websites for Academic Planning
As you begin the new academic year, be sure to check out the many academic planning tools and resources available to help you. For information about academic policies and procedures, visit: College Academic Counseling (www.cac.ucla.edu), Registrar’s Office (www.registrar.ucla.edu), and Tassels to the Left (www.ageducation.ucla.edu/degreepath). CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own CAC Peer Counselors and Student Staff, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The Undergraduate Students Association Council's Academic Affairs Commission (USAC AAC) presents Books for Bruins Textbook Scholarships. USAC AAC aims to make course materials accessible to all students. Qualifying UCLA students will receive funds of up to $150 per student, presented in the form of a reimbursement by Week 10 of fall quarter. The deadline to submit the scholarship application is Monday October 5th. Students can apply for the Books for Bruins Textbook Scholarship at this website.
