What’s happening Week 6?

Orientation Part 2
Orientation Part 2 is a fall quarter event where New Student Advisors (NSAs) will be available for drop-in counseling and program planning in preparation for winter quarter enrollment. NSAs will be able to help you plan your courses for winter quarter and provide a refresher on how to enroll in classes! Orientation Part 2 will take place on two nights: Monday, November 5th from 6pm-9pm in the Grand Horizon Room, Covel Commons and Tuesday, November 6th from 6pm-9pm in the Palisades Room, Carnesale Commons. Students are encouraged to sign up for an appointment at a specific time slot, but there will also be a stand-by list that students can wait on if they do not schedule an appointment. Visit the Orientation Part 2 Event website for more information and for instructions on how to sign up for an appointment.

First-To-Go LLC Presents: National First-Gen Day!
Did you know that November 8th is National First-Generation College Celebration Day? Thousands across the U.S. will be celebrating being the first in their family to go to college and/or being the first in their family to graduate from a college or university! To celebrate, the First-To-Go LLC is putting on a gallery-style event to display UCLA students, faculty, alumni, and staff first-gen stories and photos. There will also be free Diddy Riese cookies and UCLA First-Gen t-shirts. This event will take place on Thursday, November 8th from 3pm-6pm in De Neve Quad. For more information visit the First-To-Go website.

Winter Course: University Studies 10C
Would you like to learn how to navigate UCLA? Would you like to explore majors and careers in the life sciences? Do you want to get the most out of your undergraduate experience? University Studies 10C: Life Sciences students Ace UCLA | Critical Strategies to Achieve Undergraduate Excellence is a course that is designed specifically to assist first-year life sciences students in making a successful transition to UCLA by focusing on academic, social, and emotional aspects of the transition process. This course will help you transition into, engage with, and navigate the complex structure of UCLA by teaching you the university's mission, structure, campus resources, and much more! The course will be held on Thursday from 2pm-3:50pm, for more information, see the course listing on https://sa.ucla.edu/ro/public/soc.

As enrollment for Winter 2019 approaches, here is everything you need to know about the two-pass system UCLA uses for enrollment.

Undergraduate Student Enrollment
A two-pass enrollment system is used for all of UCLA’s undergraduate students to ensure that everyone has an equal opportunity to enroll in pre-major, major, and GE courses needed to graduate. To enroll in the next term, eligible undergraduates are given two randomly assigned appointments which fall within pass periods that are prioritized as follows: 1. Students in priority groups, 2. Seniors with 160 completed units who have declared candidacy to graduate within the next two terms, 3. Seniors with 160 or more units who have not declared candidacy, 4. New and re-entering students eligible for advance payment and/or enrollment, 5. Seniors with fewer than 160 units (135-159.9 units), 6. Juniors with fewer than 135 units (90-134.9 units), 7. Sophomores with fewer than 90 units (45-89.9 units), 8. Freshmen with fewer than 45 units (0-44.9 units). When determining class level, a student’s current term units are included and enrollment appointment times are assigned based on that projected classification. Please note that AP and IB units are not included in your projected classification.

First Pass
During your first pass, you may enroll in up to 10 units. This gives all undergraduates an opportunity to obtain at least two courses needed towards graduation. Students who do not enroll during their first pass must wait until their second pass in order to enroll.

Second Pass
During your second pass, you may add courses up to the maximum number of units allowed by your College or school. For the College of Letters and Science, the unit maximum is 19 units. Students can enroll from the beginning of their assigned enrollment appointment time through midnight on Friday of the second week of classes, when waitlists are eliminated and Study Lists of enrolled courses become official. Students should be enrolled in courses with unit credit to avoid paying the late Study List filing fee and obtaining instructor signatures and College/school approval on enrollment petitions.

How and Where to Enroll
Log onto your MyUCLA account and click on the “Classes” tab found in the top header. Under the “Enrollment” section, click “Enrollment Home.” From here, you can find, add, drop, and exchange classes and sections in addition to a variety of other enrollment functions. On this page, you may additionally find links to guides that will help you understand each enrollment operation. You can find your enrollment appointment for first and second pass on MyUCLA > Classes > Enrollment Appointments.

CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own ASK Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The Student Technology Center (STC) provides many free and paid technical services that you can use! The free services offered by the STC include, walk-in computer troubleshooting, computer workstations for both Windows and Mac, stationary supplies, and scanning. Some of the paid services include, printing and copying ($0.09/sheet for B&W, and $0.49/sheet for color), domestic and international faxing, virus removal, operating system re-installation, and more. The STC also rents out equipment, such as QAM tuner boxes and mini hubs. If you live on the Hill, they can also help with Internet or TV issues! Check out the STC at Covel L-06 (lobby level) on Monday through Thursday from 8am-10pm, and Friday from 8am-6pm.
