Academic and Tutoring Resources

Are you in a challenging class? Are you interested in supplementing your classes with tutoring or peer learning sessions? Look no further because CAC has a list of tutoring and academic resources so that you can make the most of your academic experience!

Undergraduate Student Writing Center
The Undergraduate Student Writing Center is available for students to get help with paper assignments through individualized consultations at any point in the writing process. Peer Learning Facilitators (PLFs) will help you discover, explore, and expand your ideas and suggest different strategies. For more information, visit https://wp.ucla.edu/wc/.

Student Math Center
The Student Math Center offers group study and tutorials for lower division math courses. The Center additionally offers help for specific math courses every hour, but students can also drop by for help with any lower division math course. For more information, visit www.math.ucla.edu/ugrad/smc.

Student Retention Center Test Bank
Students can access old graded quizzes, exams, and essays for UCLA courses that students who previously took the course submit to the SRC Test Bank. Most courses do have old files but some do not, as departments may restrict their access. To gain access to exam files, you must share an old graded quiz, exam, or essay from a class that you took at UCLA. Students in their first quarter at UCLA will be granted access for their first registered quarter without needing to submit a graded quiz, exam, or essay. You must schedule a same-day, five-minute appointment at the Students Activities Center, Suite 105 to access the files. To learn more about the test bank, visit www.cpo.ucla.edu/src.

Writing Success Program (WSP)
WSP offers 1-on-1 writing and creativity counseling appointments. WSP prefers to work with students who are at the beginning of their writing process for a particular paper. WSP does not provide proofreading services. Daily drop-in hours for WSP are available at the Student Activities Center in Suite 105. For more information, visit www.cpo.ucla.edu/src/writing-success-program/.

Chemistry Tutors
For students who desire 1-on-1 tutoring for Chemistry, the undergraduate office compiles a list of graduate students who are willing to tutor college students. The list includes their contact information and the specific subjects they would be willing to teach. These tutoring services are not free and the tutor will set his/her own rates. Please contact graduate students on this list individually for tutoring costs and availability. Quarterly tutoring lists can be located at 4006 Young Hall or on the Chemistry and Biochemistry webpage at https://www.chemistry.ucla.edu/student-resources.

GRADUATION TIPS: TICKET ORDERS

In keeping with the forthcoming Commencement celebrations, this quarter the Conduits column will feature graduation tips! For all of your commencement concerns, read each week’s edition for The Connection to stay up-to-date on the latest commencement news. Even if you’re not a graduating senior this year, knowing these graduation tidbits will be helpful.

Ticket ordering will begin this week! First, remember to submit your time preference for the College Commencement Ceremony. You will have from Tuesday, April 23rd at 4pm to Thursday, April 25th at 12pm, to submit your preference for either the 2pm or 7pm College Commencement Ceremony. On Thursday, April 25th at 6 pm, check your MyUCLA notices to see if your time preference for the College Commencement was granted. Starting on Friday, April 26th at 4pm and through Friday, May 17th, you will be able to confirm your ticket order for the College Commencement, as well as place your ticket order for departmental ceremonies and order parking permits. For any questions or concerns related to commencement, please visit https://commencement.ucla.edu/.
