CONDUITS
Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own ASK Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

The Center for Accessible Education provides accommodations for students with disabilities and/or medical conditions. They offer various resources such as distraction-reduced environment, alternative testing options, accessible technology, and scholarships to help students realize their academic potential. Students can also request services for housing, transportation, and events that include having a service animal, vans to get to classes, assistive listening devices, and more. For more information, you can visit their office A-255 in Murphy Hall, contact by phone at (310) 825-1501, and go onto their website www.cae.ucla.edu.
